

Weather Today
Fair, Stationary Temperature.

Silver and Lead Quotations.
The silver and lead quotations yesterday were as follows:
Bar silver, 50¢ cents.
Lead, brokers, 82.50.
Copper, castings, 10¢ cents.

CITY CIRCULATION.
The City Circulation of The Herald has been leased to Mr. J. O. McCracken. Subscribers who do not receive their papers promptly will confer a favor if they make complaint to The Herald circulation department.
All checks for city subscriptions should be made payable to
J. O. McCracken,
City Circulator.

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY.
Send this coupon
with 10 cents.
By Mail 12 cents.
To THE HERALD and you will get a fine set of pictures of the Navy.
See advertisement in another part of this paper.

TOWN TALK.
The maximum temperature yesterday was 84 degrees.
United States Marshal Glen Miller will go to Butte tonight on official business.
Master Fred Hodges, a boy soprano, will sing the offertory solo at St. Paul's chapel this morning.
A. C. Rees, who is connected with the Tribune, will deliver the address at the Santaquin school the coming year.
There will be no services in Unitarian church until Sept. 4. Sunday school will be held as usual.
Maynard are spending their vacation in Denver.
The business department of the Latter-day Saints conference issued its first annual circular and catalogue. It is a very neat publication and is handsomely illustrated.
The Utah county summer school will be held in American Fork canyon, beginning Aug. 20, and lasting five days. The public schools of Provo and Utah county will open Sept. 12.
Yesterday's clearings were $17,500 as compared with $22,170 for the same date of last year. The week's clearings footed up $108,844, as against $149,733 for the corresponding week of 1897.
The supplemental examination of John Beck and his wife at the suit of A. G. Earl, which was set for yesterday in Justice Nicholas' court, was postponed owing to the absence of the attorneys on the case.
An electric wire coming in contact with work on the street in the Western Union telegraph office yesterday morning about 11 o'clock. The fire department responded, but the small fire was sufficient to extinguish it.
J. W. Riddle pleaded not guilty before Justice McManister yesterday to the charge of stealing money. The case was set for trial Aug. 20, and lasting five days. The public schools of Provo and Utah county will open Sept. 12.
Yesterday's clearings were $17,500 as compared with $22,170 for the same date of last year. The week's clearings footed up $108,844, as against $149,733 for the corresponding week of 1897.
The supplemental examination of John Beck and his wife at the suit of A. G. Earl, which was set for yesterday in Justice Nicholas' court, was postponed owing to the absence of the attorneys on the case.
An electric wire coming in contact with work on the street in the Western Union telegraph office yesterday morning about 11 o'clock. The fire department responded, but the small fire was sufficient to extinguish it.
J. W. Riddle pleaded not guilty before Justice McManister yesterday to the charge of stealing money. The case was set for trial Aug. 20, and lasting five days. The public schools of Provo and Utah county will open Sept. 12.

CALL FOR CONVENTION

Democratic State Committee Fixes the Date.
WILL BE HELD SEPT. 15
SALT LAKE CITY NAMED AS THE PLACE.
Very Large Attendance at the Session—Walter Attended the Meeting Held at Mr. Pleasant—Letcher and Sloan Have an Argument Over Chairmanship of the Executive Committee—Proceedings.
It was decided yesterday to hold the Democratic state convention in this city on Sept. 15. This action was taken by the Democratic state committee, which met yesterday afternoon at the Herald building, in the private office of the manager. There was a large attendance, as the session was an important one and calculated to attract considerable interest in political affairs.
Chairman Sloan called the meeting to order promptly at 3:30, and a copy of the roll revealed the presence of the following members, either in person or by proxy:
R. W. Sloan, chairman.
W. H. Deane, secretary.
W. H. Deane, treasurer.
Beaver—W. L. H. Dotson, C. T. Hart, proxy.
Cannon—William Edwards, A. G. Barber, J. C. Thoresen, proxy.
Davis—Hyrum Stewart, Lena Ramp-ton, J. C. Barber, proxy.
Emery—J. L. Broshier.
Forsyth—C. C. Lund, Jr., I. C. McFarland, proxy.
Juab—N. A. Robinson, W. H. King, proxy.
Millard—D. S. Dorrity, Joshua Green-wood, proxy.
Pitkin—Jeremiah Dennis, J. R. Letcher, proxy.
Salt Lake—B. F. Lloyd, O. W. Moyle, B. F. Lloyd, proxy; Margaret Calk, Samuel Bateman.
Sevier—J. H. Wells, J. F. Howells, proxy.
Summit—J. L. Boyden, R. C. Cham-berlain, proxy; Solon Spiro, J. M. Cohen, proxy.
Tocoele—A. J. McCullin, M. Bevins, proxy.
Utah—A. D. Gash, A. J. Evans, El-ler, proxy; John Jones, Sam King, proxy.
Washington—J. C. McFarland.
Wayne—Joseph Eckels, William Howard, proxy.
Poulter, Dan Hamer, proxy; G. W. Baker, C. C. Richards, proxy; T. D. Dee.
Henry M. Ryan presented the proxy of W. H. Deane, chairman of the committee from Tocoele, he having been selected as member of the state committee from Tocoele in place of George P. Brown, who was the representative of that county at the convention held in Mercur on Aug. 4 to fill the vacancy. The secretary's roll showed that W. H. Deane was the county chairman and the member of the state committee for that county. Mr. McCullin had given his proxy to Mr. Bevins. On motion Mr. Ryan was admitted as a member.
The question of membership having been settled, the matter of fixing a date and place for holding the convention was next discussed.
S. E. King of Utah county moved that the convention be held at Provo, Utah, on Sept. 15, and that the place of holding the convention be Provo.
A. J. Weber, who held a proxy and represented Salt Lake county, moved as a substitute to insert Mr. Pleasant, Sanpete county, but no one supporting the motion, it died a quick and easy death.
The question was submitted on Mr. Cohen's amendment and Salt Lake city was substituted for Provo, and the motion was adopted, defeating Sept. 15 and Salt Lake city as the time and place for holding the state convention.
Mr. Cohen moved that the apportionment be one delegate for each 100 votes or fraction thereof, cast for King for congress in 1896, which, he explained, would make the total number of delegates 100.
Mr. Deane offered an amendment that the apportionment be one delegate for each 100 votes, and this amendment was adopted, after some little discussion.
Chairman Sloan suggested that a committee on transportation should be appointed, which was authorized, and Mr. Deane, A. D. Gash, J. C. Thoresen, Dan Hamer, E. A. McDaniel and I. C. McFarland.
Mr. Letcher presented a petition which he had circulated, and which was a request for the resignation of prominent Democrats, reciting that good and efficient organization was required everywhere as political wisdom, and that it was the duty of every citizen to support the government, and that the state committee should be charged with the responsibility of seeing that all things proper were done. That the chairman of the committee on transportation should be appointed, which was authorized, and Mr. Deane, A. D. Gash, J. C. Thoresen, Dan Hamer, E. A. McDaniel and I. C. McFarland.
Mr. Letcher presented a petition which he had circulated, and which was a request for the resignation of prominent Democrats, reciting that good and efficient organization was required everywhere as political wisdom, and that it was the duty of every citizen to support the government, and that the state committee should be charged with the responsibility of seeing that all things proper were done. That the chairman of the committee on transportation should be appointed, which was authorized, and Mr. Deane, A. D. Gash, J. C. Thoresen, Dan Hamer, E. A. McDaniel and I. C. McFarland.

require the counties to nominate their county and legislative candidates at any particular time.
Mr. Richards of Weber offered the following declaration to be embodied in the call:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
The discussion over this proposition was quite general, and met with unanimous approval. Mr. Weber, who had been designated as a fusionist, declared that this proposition met his hearty endorsement.
The time for the assembling of the state convention was fixed at 10 o'clock a. m.
Before adjournment Chairman Sloan announced that all the suggestions regarding the preparation for the campaign, including the designation of a chairman of the executive committee, would receive prompt attention, and that no time would be wasted in complaining. He said that he had no desire to do anything other than to contribute as much as possible to the success of the Democracy in the coming campaign, and that he had neither the desire nor the inclination to undertake the management of the campaign, and if it was the desire of the committee to select some one in preference to himself, his resignation was ready at any moment, but so long as he remained as chairman he would exercise the authority properly pertaining to the position, always being willing, however, to listen to suggestions.
DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.
At a meeting of the state Democratic committee of Utah, held in Salt Lake City on the 6th inst., it was ordered that a convention of delegates representing the Democratic voters of the state be held at Salt Lake City, Utah, on the 15th day of September, 1898, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices:
One judge of the supreme court of Utah, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.
The apportionment of delegates among the several counties of the state, on the basis of one delegate for each 100 votes or fraction thereof cast for Hon. W. H. Deane, in the congressional election held in 1896, as follows:
Beaver..... 1
Cannon..... 1
Davis..... 1
Emery..... 1
Forsyth..... 1
Juab..... 1
Millard..... 1
Pitkin..... 1
Salt Lake..... 1
Sevier..... 1
Summit..... 1
Tocoele..... 1
Utah..... 1
Washington..... 1
Wayne..... 1
Total..... 17
The state committee recommends that the county conventions for the selection of delegates to the state convention be held in each county not later than Sept. 10, 1898.
The qualifications for voters to be permitted to participate in the selection of delegates to the state convention, as prescribed by the Democratic state committee, are as follows:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
E. A. M'DANIEL, Chairman.
Salt Lake City, Aug. 6, 1898.
Chapman and high divers at Lagoon today.
Lagoon trains every hour today.

PROCTOR IS COMING

Will Assist the Gold Men With His Advice.
M'KINLEY MEN WANT COIN
REDFIELD WILL DETERMINE THE AMOUNT.
Silver Republican House Divided Against Itself on the Protection Plan—Teller Being Appealed to—Tribune's Position Causing Pain—It Does Not Help Frank a Little Bit—Fusion Men Are Agitated.
Advices from Washington are to the effect that the weather bureau has decided to put another station in this state, and that Cedar City is the point which has been decided upon. The department does not believe attention enough has been given to this branch of governmental service in Utah—hence this new station.
In this connection it is stated that Observer Smith is to be transferred from Salt Lake City to Some Other Point About October 1.

NEW WEATHER STATION.

GOVERNMENT WILL ESTABLISH ONE AT CEDAR CITY.
Advices from Washington are to the effect that the weather bureau has decided to put another station in this state, and that Cedar City is the point which has been decided upon. The department does not believe attention enough has been given to this branch of governmental service in Utah—hence this new station.
In this connection it is stated that Observer Smith is to be transferred from Salt Lake City to Some Other Point About October 1.

WELCH ARRIVES

Officer of the Twenty-fourth Direct From Santiago.
WAS IN THE BIG BATTLE
PROSTRATED WHILE ADVANCING UP SAN JUAN HILL.
Carried to the Rear and Contracted Yellow Fever While in the Hospital at Siboney—Received a Warm Welcome at Fort Douglas Yesterday.
Lieutenant L. M. Welch, late additional second lieutenant of the Twenty-fourth, but now second lieutenant of the Twentieth infantry, arrived in the city yesterday from Santiago. Lieutenant Welch is the first officer from the Twenty-fourth and the front to arrive at Fort Douglas.
The appearance of Lieutenant Welch tells more eloquently than words the terrible fate of soldiers who are confronted with yellow fever. He was a victim of that dreadful disease, and it has transformed him from a young soldier man to a tottering invalid. He is, however, growing stronger every day, and the delightful climate of this region will soon make him a well man again.

FOR RENT.

TWO ROOMS and pantry, 3 Apple St.
COTTAGE of five rooms, cellar and barn. Inquire at 245 Fifth East street.
EIGHT-ROOM modern brick house. Good location; bath, electric light, Miller & Miller, 20 West Second South.
TWO FRONT ROOMS, furnished or unfurnished; 72 West Fifth South.
"REMEMBER THE MAIN" real estate, rental and collecting agency is Moeke Bros., room 6, Atlas block.
OR SALE, the most desirable rooming apartments in the city, completely furnished, modern conveniences, corner Second South and State streets, in Holmes building. Apply A. E. Clark, bookkeeper, Knutson hotel.
HOUSES: Tuffe Bros. WE SELL WE RENT, 10 Main street.
FOR SALE.
BUGGY AND HARNESS for sale. Apply Bywater, west side fire department.
"REMEMBER THE MAIN" real estate, rental and collecting agency is Moeke Bros., room 6, Atlas block.
MONARCH BICYCLES, $40, $50 and $60; also repairing in all its branches. Groeschner & Gartin, 114 West First South street.
Books, Stationery, office supplies. Mims & Sons, 1200 Main street, 2nd floor.
HIGH-GRADE WHEEL, "W" model, cheap. Address 741 E. Herald.
ONE-HUNDRED-ACRE FARM, improved, with good river, canal, with water right. All or part, on easy terms, or exchange for Salt Lake property. Alvin E. Snow, Auerbach building.
$1,000 four-room brick, First South and Eighth West; easy payments. Alvin E. Snow, Auerbach building.

THE SALT LAKE HERALD

require the counties to nominate their county and legislative candidates at any particular time.
Mr. Richards of Weber offered the following declaration to be embodied in the call:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
The discussion over this proposition was quite general, and met with unanimous approval. Mr. Weber, who had been designated as a fusionist, declared that this proposition met his hearty endorsement.
The time for the assembling of the state convention was fixed at 10 o'clock a. m.
Before adjournment Chairman Sloan announced that all the suggestions regarding the preparation for the campaign, including the designation of a chairman of the executive committee, would receive prompt attention, and that no time would be wasted in complaining. He said that he had no desire to do anything other than to contribute as much as possible to the success of the Democracy in the coming campaign, and that he had neither the desire nor the inclination to undertake the management of the campaign, and if it was the desire of the committee to select some one in preference to himself, his resignation was ready at any moment, but so long as he remained as chairman he would exercise the authority properly pertaining to the position, always being willing, however, to listen to suggestions.
DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.
At a meeting of the state Democratic committee of Utah, held in Salt Lake City on the 6th inst., it was ordered that a convention of delegates representing the Democratic voters of the state be held at Salt Lake City, Utah, on the 15th day of September, 1898, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices:
One judge of the supreme court of Utah, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.
The apportionment of delegates among the several counties of the state, on the basis of one delegate for each 100 votes or fraction thereof cast for Hon. W. H. Deane, in the congressional election held in 1896, as follows:
Beaver..... 1
Cannon..... 1
Davis..... 1
Emery..... 1
Forsyth..... 1
Juab..... 1
Millard..... 1
Pitkin..... 1
Salt Lake..... 1
Sevier..... 1
Summit..... 1
Tocoele..... 1
Utah..... 1
Washington..... 1
Wayne..... 1
Total..... 17
The state committee recommends that the county conventions for the selection of delegates to the state convention be held in each county not later than Sept. 10, 1898.
The qualifications for voters to be permitted to participate in the selection of delegates to the state convention, as prescribed by the Democratic state committee, are as follows:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
E. A. M'DANIEL, Chairman.
Salt Lake City, Aug. 6, 1898.
Chapman and high divers at Lagoon today.
Lagoon trains every hour today.

THE SALT LAKE HERALD

require the counties to nominate their county and legislative candidates at any particular time.
Mr. Richards of Weber offered the following declaration to be embodied in the call:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
The discussion over this proposition was quite general, and met with unanimous approval. Mr. Weber, who had been designated as a fusionist, declared that this proposition met his hearty endorsement.
The time for the assembling of the state convention was fixed at 10 o'clock a. m.
Before adjournment Chairman Sloan announced that all the suggestions regarding the preparation for the campaign, including the designation of a chairman of the executive committee, would receive prompt attention, and that no time would be wasted in complaining. He said that he had no desire to do anything other than to contribute as much as possible to the success of the Democracy in the coming campaign, and that he had neither the desire nor the inclination to undertake the management of the campaign, and if it was the desire of the committee to select some one in preference to himself, his resignation was ready at any moment, but so long as he remained as chairman he would exercise the authority properly pertaining to the position, always being willing, however, to listen to suggestions.
DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.
At a meeting of the state Democratic committee of Utah, held in Salt Lake City on the 6th inst., it was ordered that a convention of delegates representing the Democratic voters of the state be held at Salt Lake City, Utah, on the 15th day of September, 1898, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices:
One judge of the supreme court of Utah, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.
The apportionment of delegates among the several counties of the state, on the basis of one delegate for each 100 votes or fraction thereof cast for Hon. W. H. Deane, in the congressional election held in 1896, as follows:
Beaver..... 1
Cannon..... 1
Davis..... 1
Emery..... 1
Forsyth..... 1
Juab..... 1
Millard..... 1
Pitkin..... 1
Salt Lake..... 1
Sevier..... 1
Summit..... 1
Tocoele..... 1
Utah..... 1
Washington..... 1
Wayne..... 1
Total..... 17
The state committee recommends that the county conventions for the selection of delegates to the state convention be held in each county not later than Sept. 10, 1898.
The qualifications for voters to be permitted to participate in the selection of delegates to the state convention, as prescribed by the Democratic state committee, are as follows:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
E. A. M'DANIEL, Chairman.
Salt Lake City, Aug. 6, 1898.
Chapman and high divers at Lagoon today.
Lagoon trains every hour today.

THE SALT LAKE HERALD

require the counties to nominate their county and legislative candidates at any particular time.
Mr. Richards of Weber offered the following declaration to be embodied in the call:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
The discussion over this proposition was quite general, and met with unanimous approval. Mr. Weber, who had been designated as a fusionist, declared that this proposition met his hearty endorsement.
The time for the assembling of the state convention was fixed at 10 o'clock a. m.
Before adjournment Chairman Sloan announced that all the suggestions regarding the preparation for the campaign, including the designation of a chairman of the executive committee, would receive prompt attention, and that no time would be wasted in complaining. He said that he had no desire to do anything other than to contribute as much as possible to the success of the Democracy in the coming campaign, and that he had neither the desire nor the inclination to undertake the management of the campaign, and if it was the desire of the committee to select some one in preference to himself, his resignation was ready at any moment, but so long as he remained as chairman he would exercise the authority properly pertaining to the position, always being willing, however, to listen to suggestions.
DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.
At a meeting of the state Democratic committee of Utah, held in Salt Lake City on the 6th inst., it was ordered that a convention of delegates representing the Democratic voters of the state be held at Salt Lake City, Utah, on the 15th day of September, 1898, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices:
One judge of the supreme court of Utah, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.
The apportionment of delegates among the several counties of the state, on the basis of one delegate for each 100 votes or fraction thereof cast for Hon. W. H. Deane, in the congressional election held in 1896, as follows:
Beaver..... 1
Cannon..... 1
Davis..... 1
Emery..... 1
Forsyth..... 1
Juab..... 1
Millard..... 1
Pitkin..... 1
Salt Lake..... 1
Sevier..... 1
Summit..... 1
Tocoele..... 1
Utah..... 1
Washington..... 1
Wayne..... 1
Total..... 17
The state committee recommends that the county conventions for the selection of delegates to the state convention be held in each county not later than Sept. 10, 1898.
The qualifications for voters to be permitted to participate in the selection of delegates to the state convention, as prescribed by the Democratic state committee, are as follows:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
E. A. M'DANIEL, Chairman.
Salt Lake City, Aug. 6, 1898.
Chapman and high divers at Lagoon today.
Lagoon trains every hour today.

THE SALT LAKE HERALD

require the counties to nominate their county and legislative candidates at any particular time.
Mr. Richards of Weber offered the following declaration to be embodied in the call:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
The discussion over this proposition was quite general, and met with unanimous approval. Mr. Weber, who had been designated as a fusionist, declared that this proposition met his hearty endorsement.
The time for the assembling of the state convention was fixed at 10 o'clock a. m.
Before adjournment Chairman Sloan announced that all the suggestions regarding the preparation for the campaign, including the designation of a chairman of the executive committee, would receive prompt attention, and that no time would be wasted in complaining. He said that he had no desire to do anything other than to contribute as much as possible to the success of the Democracy in the coming campaign, and that he had neither the desire nor the inclination to undertake the management of the campaign, and if it was the desire of the committee to select some one in preference to himself, his resignation was ready at any moment, but so long as he remained as chairman he would exercise the authority properly pertaining to the position, always being willing, however, to listen to suggestions.
DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.
At a meeting of the state Democratic committee of Utah, held in Salt Lake City on the 6th inst., it was ordered that a convention of delegates representing the Democratic voters of the state be held at Salt Lake City, Utah, on the 15th day of September, 1898, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices:
One judge of the supreme court of Utah, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.
The apportionment of delegates among the several counties of the state, on the basis of one delegate for each 100 votes or fraction thereof cast for Hon. W. H. Deane, in the congressional election held in 1896, as follows:
Beaver..... 1
Cannon..... 1
Davis..... 1
Emery..... 1
Forsyth..... 1
Juab..... 1
Millard..... 1
Pitkin..... 1
Salt Lake..... 1
Sevier..... 1
Summit..... 1
Tocoele..... 1
Utah..... 1
Washington..... 1
Wayne..... 1
Total..... 17
The state committee recommends that the county conventions for the selection of delegates to the state convention be held in each county not later than Sept. 10, 1898.
The qualifications for voters to be permitted to participate in the selection of delegates to the state convention, as prescribed by the Democratic state committee, are as follows:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
E. A. M'DANIEL, Chairman.
Salt Lake City, Aug. 6, 1898.
Chapman and high divers at Lagoon today.
Lagoon trains every hour today.

THE SALT LAKE HERALD

require the counties to nominate their county and legislative candidates at any particular time.
Mr. Richards of Weber offered the following declaration to be embodied in the call:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
The discussion over this proposition was quite general, and met with unanimous approval. Mr. Weber, who had been designated as a fusionist, declared that this proposition met his hearty endorsement.
The time for the assembling of the state convention was fixed at 10 o'clock a. m.
Before adjournment Chairman Sloan announced that all the suggestions regarding the preparation for the campaign, including the designation of a chairman of the executive committee, would receive prompt attention, and that no time would be wasted in complaining. He said that he had no desire to do anything other than to contribute as much as possible to the success of the Democracy in the coming campaign, and that he had neither the desire nor the inclination to undertake the management of the campaign, and if it was the desire of the committee to select some one in preference to himself, his resignation was ready at any moment, but so long as he remained as chairman he would exercise the authority properly pertaining to the position, always being willing, however, to listen to suggestions.
DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.
At a meeting of the state Democratic committee of Utah, held in Salt Lake City on the 6th inst., it was ordered that a convention of delegates representing the Democratic voters of the state be held at Salt Lake City, Utah, on the 15th day of September, 1898, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices:
One judge of the supreme court of Utah, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.
The apportionment of delegates among the several counties of the state, on the basis of one delegate for each 100 votes or fraction thereof cast for Hon. W. H. Deane, in the congressional election held in 1896, as follows:
Beaver..... 1
Cannon..... 1
Davis..... 1
Emery..... 1
Forsyth..... 1
Juab..... 1
Millard..... 1
Pitkin..... 1
Salt Lake..... 1
Sevier..... 1
Summit..... 1
Tocoele..... 1
Utah..... 1
Washington..... 1
Wayne..... 1
Total..... 17
The state committee recommends that the county conventions for the selection of delegates to the state convention be held in each county not later than Sept. 10, 1898.
The qualifications for voters to be permitted to participate in the selection of delegates to the state convention, as prescribed by the Democratic state committee, are as follows:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
E. A. M'DANIEL, Chairman.
Salt Lake City, Aug. 6, 1898.
Chapman and high divers at Lagoon today.
Lagoon trains every hour today.

THE SALT LAKE HERALD

require the counties to nominate their county and legislative candidates at any particular time.
Mr. Richards of Weber offered the following declaration to be embodied in the call:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
The discussion over this proposition was quite general, and met with unanimous approval. Mr. Weber, who had been designated as a fusionist, declared that this proposition met his hearty endorsement.
The time for the assembling of the state convention was fixed at 10 o'clock a. m.
Before adjournment Chairman Sloan announced that all the suggestions regarding the preparation for the campaign, including the designation of a chairman of the executive committee, would receive prompt attention, and that no time would be wasted in complaining. He said that he had no desire to do anything other than to contribute as much as possible to the success of the Democracy in the coming campaign, and that he had neither the desire nor the inclination to undertake the management of the campaign, and if it was the desire of the committee to select some one in preference to himself, his resignation was ready at any moment, but so long as he remained as chairman he would exercise the authority properly pertaining to the position, always being willing, however, to listen to suggestions.
DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.
At a meeting of the state Democratic committee of Utah, held in Salt Lake City on the 6th inst., it was ordered that a convention of delegates representing the Democratic voters of the state be held at Salt Lake City, Utah, on the 15th day of September, 1898, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices:
One judge of the supreme court of Utah, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.
The apportionment of delegates among the several counties of the state, on the basis of one delegate for each 100 votes or fraction thereof cast for Hon. W. H. Deane, in the congressional election held in 1896, as follows:
Beaver..... 1
Cannon..... 1
Davis..... 1
Emery..... 1
Forsyth..... 1
Juab..... 1
Millard..... 1
Pitkin..... 1
Salt Lake..... 1
Sevier..... 1
Summit..... 1
Tocoele..... 1
Utah..... 1
Washington..... 1
Wayne..... 1
Total..... 17
The state committee recommends that the county conventions for the selection of delegates to the state convention be held in each county not later than Sept. 10, 1898.
The qualifications for voters to be permitted to participate in the selection of delegates to the state convention, as prescribed by the Democratic state committee, are as follows:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
E. A. M'DANIEL, Chairman.
Salt Lake City, Aug. 6, 1898.
Chapman and high divers at Lagoon today.
Lagoon trains every hour today.

THE SALT LAKE HERALD

require the counties to nominate their county and legislative candidates at any particular time.
Mr. Richards of Weber offered the following declaration to be embodied in the call:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
The discussion over this proposition was quite general, and met with unanimous approval. Mr. Weber, who had been designated as a fusionist, declared that this proposition met his hearty endorsement.
The time for the assembling of the state convention was fixed at 10 o'clock a. m.
Before adjournment Chairman Sloan announced that all the suggestions regarding the preparation for the campaign, including the designation of a chairman of the executive committee, would receive prompt attention, and that no time would be wasted in complaining. He said that he had no desire to do anything other than to contribute as much as possible to the success of the Democracy in the coming campaign, and that he had neither the desire nor the inclination to undertake the management of the campaign, and if it was the desire of the committee to select some one in preference to himself, his resignation was ready at any moment, but so long as he remained as chairman he would exercise the authority properly pertaining to the position, always being willing, however, to listen to suggestions.
DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.
At a meeting of the state Democratic committee of Utah, held in Salt Lake City on the 6th inst., it was ordered that a convention of delegates representing the Democratic voters of the state be held at Salt Lake City, Utah, on the 15th day of September, 1898, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices:
One judge of the supreme court of Utah, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.
The apportionment of delegates among the several counties of the state, on the basis of one delegate for each 100 votes or fraction thereof cast for Hon. W. H. Deane, in the congressional election held in 1896, as follows:
Beaver..... 1
Cannon..... 1
Davis..... 1
Emery..... 1
Forsyth..... 1
Juab..... 1
Millard..... 1
Pitkin..... 1
Salt Lake..... 1
Sevier..... 1
Summit..... 1
Tocoele..... 1
Utah..... 1
Washington..... 1
Wayne..... 1
Total..... 17
The state committee recommends that the county conventions for the selection of delegates to the state convention be held in each county not later than Sept. 10, 1898.
The qualifications for voters to be permitted to participate in the selection of delegates to the state convention, as prescribed by the Democratic state committee, are as follows:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
E. A. M'DANIEL, Chairman.
Salt Lake City, Aug. 6, 1898.
Chapman and high divers at Lagoon today.
Lagoon trains every hour today.

THE SALT LAKE HERALD

require the counties to nominate their county and legislative candidates at any particular time.
Mr. Richards of Weber offered the following declaration to be embodied in the call:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
The discussion over this proposition was quite general, and met with unanimous approval. Mr. Weber, who had been designated as a fusionist, declared that this proposition met his hearty endorsement.
The time for the assembling of the state convention was fixed at 10 o'clock a. m.
Before adjournment Chairman Sloan announced that all the suggestions regarding the preparation for the campaign, including the designation of a chairman of the executive committee, would receive prompt attention, and that no time would be wasted in complaining. He said that he had no desire to do anything other than to contribute as much as possible to the success of the Democracy in the coming campaign, and that he had neither the desire nor the inclination to undertake the management of the campaign, and if it was the desire of the committee to select some one in preference to himself, his resignation was ready at any moment, but so long as he remained as chairman he would exercise the authority properly pertaining to the position, always being willing, however, to listen to suggestions.
DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.
At a meeting of the state Democratic committee of Utah, held in Salt Lake City on the 6th inst., it was ordered that a convention of delegates representing the Democratic voters of the state be held at Salt Lake City, Utah, on the 15th day of September, 1898, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices:
One judge of the supreme court of Utah, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.
The apportionment of delegates among the several counties of the state, on the basis of one delegate for each 100 votes or fraction thereof cast for Hon. W. H. Deane, in the congressional election held in 1896, as follows:
Beaver..... 1
Cannon..... 1
Davis..... 1
Emery..... 1
Forsyth..... 1
Juab..... 1
Millard..... 1
Pitkin..... 1
Salt Lake..... 1
Sevier..... 1
Summit..... 1
Tocoele..... 1
Utah..... 1
Washington..... 1
Wayne..... 1
Total..... 17
The state committee recommends that the county conventions for the selection of delegates to the state convention be held in each county not later than Sept. 10, 1898.
The qualifications for voters to be permitted to participate in the selection of delegates to the state convention, as prescribed by the Democratic state committee, are as follows:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
E. A. M'DANIEL, Chairman.
Salt Lake City, Aug. 6, 1898.
Chapman and high divers at Lagoon today.
Lagoon trains every hour today.

THE SALT LAKE HERALD

require the counties to nominate their county and legislative candidates at any particular time.
Mr. Richards of Weber offered the following declaration to be embodied in the call:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
The discussion over this proposition was quite general, and met with unanimous approval. Mr. Weber, who had been designated as a fusionist, declared that this proposition met his hearty endorsement.
The time for the assembling of the state convention was fixed at 10 o'clock a. m.
Before adjournment Chairman Sloan announced that all the suggestions regarding the preparation for the campaign, including the designation of a chairman of the executive committee, would receive prompt attention, and that no time would be wasted in complaining. He said that he had no desire to do anything other than to contribute as much as possible to the success of the Democracy in the coming campaign, and that he had neither the desire nor the inclination to undertake the management of the campaign, and if it was the desire of the committee to select some one in preference to himself, his resignation was ready at any moment, but so long as he remained as chairman he would exercise the authority properly pertaining to the position, always being willing, however, to listen to suggestions.
DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.
At a meeting of the state Democratic committee of Utah, held in Salt Lake City on the 6th inst., it was ordered that a convention of delegates representing the Democratic voters of the state be held at Salt Lake City, Utah, on the 15th day of September, 1898, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices:
One judge of the supreme court of Utah, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.
The apportionment of delegates among the several counties of the state, on the basis of one delegate for each 100 votes or fraction thereof cast for Hon. W. H. Deane, in the congressional election held in 1896, as follows:
Beaver..... 1
Cannon..... 1
Davis..... 1
Emery..... 1
Forsyth..... 1
Juab..... 1
Millard..... 1
Pitkin..... 1
Salt Lake..... 1
Sevier..... 1
Summit..... 1
Tocoele..... 1
Utah..... 1
Washington..... 1
Wayne..... 1
Total..... 17
The state committee recommends that the county conventions for the selection of delegates to the state convention be held in each county not later than Sept. 10, 1898.
The qualifications for voters to be permitted to participate in the selection of delegates to the state convention, as prescribed by the Democratic state committee, are as follows:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
E. A. M'DANIEL, Chairman.
Salt Lake City, Aug. 6, 1898.
Chapman and high divers at Lagoon today.
Lagoon trains every hour today.

THE SALT LAKE HERALD

require the counties to nominate their county and legislative candidates at any particular time.
Mr. Richards of Weber offered the following declaration to be embodied in the call:
"All Democrats who endorse the principles enumerated in the platform adopted at the Democratic national convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and who will support the nominees of the Democratic conventions, are entitled to participate in the primaries and conventions contemplated by this call."
The discussion over this proposition was quite general, and met with unanimous approval. Mr. Weber